Jennifer Plummer

*Acting Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and Vice President of Business Operations
Sandia National Laboratories*

Jennifer Plummer is Acting CFO and Vice President of Business Operations for Sandia Corporation. The corporation is a wholly owned subsidiary of Lockheed Martin Corporation that manages and operates Sandia National Laboratories, a multi-program Department of Energy research and development laboratory. The Business Operations Division she leads encompasses finance, accounting, procurement, property and logistics, business matrix operations, pension and savings fund management. As a member of Sandia's senior executive leadership team, she's responsible for developing and executing financial strategies, teaming with others on the leadership team to build relationships with key customers, cultivate and develop new business, and provide reach-back to Lockheed Martin corporate resources.

Prior to her Vice President role, Jennifer served as Director of Business Management Operations. In this capacity, she was responsible for providing organizations, programs and project support while assuring connections and efficiencies through a business community network. In addition, Jennifer was the senior manager for the Defense Systems Division Business Operations responsible for all business and financial operations and human resource processes for this $550 million business area. She was also the project controls manager for construction of the $500 million Microsystems and Engineering Sciences Applications (MESA), a state-of-the-art national complex. Jennifer joined the Laboratories in 1992 and served in various other capacities in Sandia's Accounting and Finance, Executive Office and Audit organizations.

A lifelong resident of New Mexico, Jennifer is a Certified Public Accountant, a Certified Internal Auditor and a certified Project Management Professional. Jennifer received a Master of Business Administration and a Bachelor of Business Administration, with a concentration in Accounting, from the University of New Mexico.

Jennifer's community involvement includes United Way and Habitat for Humanity. Jennifer is married with one daughter and enjoys running, cycling and cooking.
